Important Meeting Concerning New Railroad at Corbin Tuesday.

Speech-Making Dispensed With and All Settle Down to Business.

DIRECTORS OF COMPANY SELECTED.

The Jellico, Barbourville and Beattyville railroad meeting was called to order at 1 o'clock in the sample room of the Corbin Hotel last Tuesday afternoon by Mr. R. B. Baird, of Jellico, and Judge S. B. Dishman was chosen as chairman of the meeting in the absence of Dr. Newman, who has acted as chairman of the meetings from the beginning. D. W. Clark was selected as secretary, after which the business of the meeting was taken up.

First, the reports of the subscription committees were called for and it was ascertained that a sufficient amount was secured and pledged to complete the organization and perhaps more than was actually necessary, but it was agreed to continue to sell the stock and raise all that could be secured until the next meeting.

It was moved and carried that a Board of nine Directors be elected to take charge of the business of the new project and they were selected as follows:

DIRECTORS.

R. B. Baird, Jellico, Tenn.
Sam'l Bennett, Whitley county.
S. B. Dishman, Knox county.
F. D. Sampson, " "
Robert W. Cole, " "
Wm. M. Tye, " "
L. W. Farmer, " "
C. B. Little, Clay county.
G. W. Gourley, Lee county, and they were authorized by the stockholders to proceed to have the company incorporated and begin business at once.

The charter was then prepared and properly signed and acknowledged before J. C. Maynard, a notary public for Whitley county, after which the meeting adjourned to meet again on next Tuesday, the 26th, at Corbin at which time all the stock will be paid in and the officers of the company elected and the application for a charter mailed to the Secretary of State and committees appointed to secure the right-of-way and such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

There is now no further doubts concerning the building of this railroad, and all along the line there is enthusiasm, and all are working to the end—that of securing the road at as early a day as it is possible, and we now believe that before the leaves fall work will be under way on the proposed road.

This road, when completed, will prove one of the greatest paying roads of the State, as it will open a gateway to the South from the North and East and make the distance several hundred miles shorter between points in the North, East and South. Besides, there is more tonnage along the proposed route than one road could handle within the next fifty years, besides the traffic that would come over the road from other points on account of its convenience and saving of the distance.

Let everybody talk and work for the new railroad.

"HOME COMING WEEK."

Louisville Commercial Club Wants to Invite All Former Kentuckians to Visit the State Next Spring.

WANTED—The names and addresses of all Kentuckians who have moved to other States.

Did you know that the last Census shows that there are over six hundred thousand Kentuckians living in other States? Well, it's a fact.

How many of these former Kentuckians do you know?

The Commercial Club of Louisville wants the names of as many of these as possible to get. It desires to extend invitations to every Kentuckian who has moved away to come back next Spring and attend the "Home Coming Week" festivities in Louisville.

Plans are rapidly maturing for this great event. The Commercial Club hopes to make it a red letter week on Kentucky's historical calendar. There will be "something doing" seven days and nights and then the crowd will disperse and go to different parts of the State to remain as in effect, as the arrangement with the railroads will include a low rate to all points of Kentucky for "Home Coming Week" in Louisville.

If you have any friends or relatives who have moved to other States, please send the names and addresses at once to the Commercial Club, Louisville, Kentucky.

Enjoys Home Circle Feature of Mountain Advocate.

DEAR EDITOR:—I have many times felt that I would love to express my many thanks to you for the Home Circle column. I never fail to read it, and feel that I am very much benefited by reading it. I only wish that every man, woman and child could read it and would strive to live up to it.

It would not be long until we would not need the new Courthouse you spoke of through your columns before. Many homes would be made more pleasant to-day that are dropping into darkness.

I am made to believe that a home where all the members of the family agree, and are good and kind to each other, is a fore-taste of that heavenly home which we all should be preparing to enjoy after we have spent this short life of ours. Home is the place to fit and train ourselves in during our short stay in this world, that we may be benefited to enjoy that better home that Christ said he had gone to prepare for us. It would be impossible for us to enjoy the heavenly home, unless we give ourselves a thorough training in our homes here. I think it would be if we are called to go unprepared as much impossible to enjoy it as it is for a black sinner to enjoy the company of a Christian. A sinner to rightly enjoy himself as he calls it, wants to be in the company of a sinner.

I hope many of your readers will read and study the Home Circle and try to make home a place of enjoyment, peace and happiness.

Yours very respectfully,
F. C. M.

Sealed Bids.

Bids will be opened at 7 o'clock p. m. on next Tuesday, September 26th, at the M. E. Church, for the erection of the new M. E. Church building. All those desiring to submit bids on this building will please have them ready for that time.

The Building Committee reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

T. B. STRATTON, Pastor.

Biography of an Editor.

The stork disappears and we look into the cradle and behold a male child. After running the gauntlet of measles, mumps and chicken-pox he enters school. At the age of ten he is a red-headed, freckle-faced boy and the terror of the neighborhood. At 12 he is an apprentice in a printing office. At 18 he has acquired two cases of long primer and an army press, and is an editor of a country newspaper. At 20 he is married. At 30 he is bald-headed, stoop-shouldered and the father of a large family. At 35 he is a corpse in a cheap pine coffin, and as 500 delinquent subscribers file past his bier for the last look, they are heard to say: "He was a good fellow, but he couldn't save his money."

Farmers' Club.

Next Monday will be the regular meeting of the Knox County Farmers' Club, and a number of speakers have been arranged for the occasion. There will also be some business to be transacted, and among other things a delegate selected to attend the State meeting to be held in Louisville October 10, 11 and 12. Let everybody come out and make this an interesting meeting.

Come in and settle your subscription for the Advocate, don't wait to be dunned.

Some Pumpkins.

"Uncle" Logan Runyon has undoubtedly the finest crop of pumpkins that we have seen this season. He has one vine that came up "a volunteer" in his potato patch and was permitted to grow, until it has covered his garden and one side of the yard and run through the fence and covered considerable of his neighbor's property, then out into the street, and no one knows where it will stop. It now has twenty-nine large pumpkins on some of them that will weigh perhaps 60 pounds. It has been estimated by several that there is at present 1,000 pounds of pumpkins on this one vine. They are of a very fine variety, shaped like the mountain green watermelon, and will measure about twenty-four inches in length, and about fourteen inches in diameter. Who can beat that?

NOTICE.

The legal voters of precinct No. 3, of Knox County, will take notice that an election will be held in said precinct at the regular election on November 7, 1905, for the purpose of ascertaining the will of the legal voters of said precinct upon the question whether or not they wish such as cattle, horses, mules, sheep and hogs to run at large in said precinct.

Given under my hand as Sheriff of Knox County, this Sept. 19, 1905 9-22-05. W. W. BYRLEY, S. K. C.

RESOLUTIONS

ON DEATH OF BRO. W. S. TAYLOR.

Again our Tribe has been called upon to surrender from its Council and walks of life one of its beloved chiefs and brothers, W. S. Taylor, who has been called by the Great Spirit to the spirit world; therefore be it

Resolved, That Tchopitoulas Tribe, No. 111, has suffered a great loss of one who was so often associated with us in the Council Chamber, and one who loved the work and the teachings of our noble Order, and who labored so earnestly for the up-building of the Tribe in our hunting grounds.

Resolved, That we meekly bow to the will of the Great Spirit in calling our departed brother from our ranks, and while we deplore the loss that our Tribe has sustained, we believe his spirit now roams through the Great Hunting Grounds of heaven.

Resolved, That we, as members and brothers, strive to imitate his virtues and follow the good example of kindness, patience and brotherly love he has set before us, and when he shall be called to cross over the river may we each be prepared to meet our worthy brother who has preceded us.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread at large upon our minutes, that a copy be given to the dear companion of our departed brother, and a copy handed to the Mountain Advocate for publication.

right if you hope to get through this world right. The right way for such a voter is to cast your vote for the straight Republican ticket. They are all good men and worthy of your support, and when you have done that, then vote for Court-house bond issue and against the return to the viva voca system of voting, and deposit your ballot and you have done your whole duty and started in the right direction. Continue this course and you will never have anything to regret.

SHALL the people of Kentucky continue to vote the secret ballot system, or will they return to the former method of viva voca method, is the question to be decided at the polls in November 7? As for us, we have seen enough of the open ballot and the pulling and buying of worthless floaters around the polls to forever disgust any one with the open ballot, and we trust that the people of this old Commonwealth will vote to retain the secret ballot system and thereby preserve order at the polls.

THE HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

THE MUSIC THAT CARRIES.

I've toiled with the men the world has blest
And I've toiled with the men who failed,
I've toiled with the men who strove with zest,
And I've toiled with men who waited
And this is the tale my soul will tell,
As it drifts over the harbor bar;
The sounds of a sigh don't carry well,
But the lilt of a laugh rings far.
The men who were near the grumbler's side
O, they heard not a word he said;
The sound of a song rang far and wide,
And they hearkened to that instead,
Its tones were sweet as the tale they tell
As the rise of the Christmas star—
The sounds of a sigh don't carry well,
But the lilt of a laugh rings far.

THE ante-room to heaven is found in loyal love and an unsullied home life.

THE right kind of a man allows the whole world to see by his manner, his expression and his life when he loves a good woman, but he keeps for her alone those demonstrations of affection which need no audience.

SYMPATHY and encouragement are the spurs to greater deeds. One grain of sympathy can be compared to a grain of mustard seed, but one seed planted and replanted will be enough to finally spread over the largest field. A living seed once sown from a flying bird's beak into the crevice of a crack. It grew and multiplied until finally it burst the rock in twain. This is a scientific fact, a real happening. Be not selfish with your words of encouragement and sympathy. There is nothing so "cheap" and yet nothing can be more valuable.

WHAT this old world needs is more sympathy and more encouragement. Why does a boy consider his mother his best friend? Because he can carry to her his troubles and feels that she understands and will sympathize with him. Why does self-same boy grown to be a man seek a mate? More sympathy. The companionship and encouragement of a kindred soul. We say man (and that includes woman also) marries for "love," and what is love but sympathy? The way of life is filled with dreary places. To most of us, our pathways are strewn with bitter disappointment. Our weary feet, instead of trampling velvet cushions of green sward, stumble over jagged rocks. It is then that we seek an oasis of sympathy. We long to pour into sympathetic ears the tale of our troubles, our hopes and our ambitions. It is then the value of human sympathy is appreciated.

MILLIONAIRE Christians who have just planned a corner on wheat shall paperize thousands of their brother men but shall swell their own millions into billions, will bow their gray heads reverently on the velvet backs of costly pews, and glorify the name of that gentle Being who was born in a manger, and who made his followers to "Do unto others as they would be done by."

CHEERFULNESS.

Every position has its antidote, and the one that never fails to give relief in emotional poisoning, is laughter, laughter, or rather that pleasurable tone of feeling which is an expression of it, is not only an antidote for depressing emotions, but it is a most effective preventative of the emotional displays, and is also a far better tonic to the entire body than any pharmacist can compound. The art of being cheerful is one that any one can cultivate and develop to a most effective degree. It is easy enough to smile when everything looks bright and the world smiles with you, and it is very difficult to be cheerful when undergoing your most severe ordeals. Do not expect too much from your efforts at first. Begin with being cheerful under the more trifling annoyances. Control yourself in the lesser vexations and you will gradually become master of yourself in the most severe ordeals.

WOMAN IN THE HOME.

In the home woman occupies a position of unlimited power and influence, if she but knew it. Nowhere else can she exert such an influence upon the life of the nation and the world at large. The moment she leaves the home in search of power she leaves the sphere where her greatest power resides. One of the saddest and most menacing signs of the times, to our mind, is the neglect of the home of life, the ease which divorces are granted, the way in which children are allowed to grow up on the streets, to be out at all hours of the night to seek pleasure away from the home.

Today there is a tendency for woman to look upon the cares of domestic life as irksome. There is a growing desire to appear in public life. The quiet home of life is too uneventful, too humdrum. Children are a nuisance because they tie the mother down.

Any movement which tends to weaken the family tie, to break up the home life is dangerous in the extreme. In the home, and at the mother's knee, love for home, love for country, love for righteousness and truth must be instilled. In the home, at the mother's knee, the men who have been the world's greatest leaders have been trained. In the home, at the mother's knee, good men, strong men, righteous men, patriotic men, the men upon whom the destinies of the human race depend, in whom lie the strength and enthusiasm of a nation's life, in the home these men are reared and nowhere else. To meet the crisis which may arise at any time in the life of a country like our own, we must always have a vast reserve of loyal patriotism, good citizenship, sound morality and honest statesmanship, ready at hand to summon at a moment's notice. All this we must have to preserve the nation's life. And all this depends almost entirely upon woman's influence in the home. It is woman who saves and preserves the nation's life. It always must be so in the future as in the past, not by voting merely, but by patient devotion to her duty in the home and family, by bringing up her children to be trusted, relied upon to do the right thing under any circumstances, at any cost.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Ola, Ky.

Wake up some of the old correspondents and give us the happenings of your section through the columns of the Advocate.

A. Jenkins, of Ola, agent for the Wytville Marble Works, made a flying trip to Cowan branch Saturday.

Mr. Alphonso Bates and wife, of Lynchburg, passed through Ola last Thursday for Evans, where he will visit their parents a few fortnights. Mr. Bates has recently completed a course in bookkeeping at Lexington. He now holds a good position at Lynchburg.

The candidates have been taking a long nap since the primary last April, and are now looking forward to the coming election in November. Almost all the nominees will have an opponent.

Alvin Hall, of Millstone, and Miss Mary Franklin, Colly were united in the holy bonds of matrimony Tuesday afternoon about 4 o'clock. Mr. Hall is one of Millstone's most respectable citizens while Miss Franklin is one of Colly's nicest young ladies. Mr. and Mrs. Hall, here is our best, and may you and yours live a happy life while you are floating down the placid stream for a brighter clime.

HORN PORT.

MILLS, Ky.

Robert Stansberry was here last week on business.

Mr. A. A. Hopkins visited the schools at this place last week in the capacity of Superintendent. The reports which the teachers were able to give, were exceptionally good.

Rev. J. T. Spurlock preached at Trace Branch last Sunday, morning and evening. Nine persons united with the church (Baptist) and three were baptized.

James Gambrel spent Sunday with homefolks at Knuckles.

George Lane and S. A. D. Jones spent Saturday and Sunday at Hammond. There have been various conjectures as to the object of their visit, but none of them are supported by satisfactory evidence.

Mrs. C. T. Warren spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. A. Watson. Saw-milling, fodder pulling, sowing and loafing are chief among the well followed occupations at present.

It was thought that the old-time "scrapping" was reviving, when Will Patterson and Henry Jackson "tangled" the other day, but, although pistols, axes, etc., were drawn, neutral intervention prevented bloodshed.

A transaction is on foot which, if it carries, will bring a distillery to this place. This may be a paying investment, but we dread the consequences. We fear that its influence will tend to lower the moral standard which the school and church have labored so hard to build up in this place.

POTTER.

Jarvis' Store.

Fodder saving is all the go now. The school at Callahan is progressing nicely, with Miss Emma Morris as teacher.

Thomas Hamber and wife spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Lawson.

Charles Martin, of Paintsville, visited relatives here last week.

Mrs. Alex Sevier, of Barbourville, visited Miss Mattie Jarvis, Monday. Elisha Abner, of this place, will soon have his new house completed, on Goose creek, where he will move shortly.

Hiram Woolloom made a business trip to Barbourville last Friday.

Miss Mary Lawson spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Jane Houshell.

Thomas Disney was in Barbourville Saturday on business.

W. S. Linville has gone to Artemus on business.

J. R. Bailey has gone to Knoxville on business.

Thos. Disney has found a new girl. They say he is dead gone this time.

If we are reliably informed, Henry Lawson is up against it now since Thos. Disney beat him out of his girl.

Doc Beets, of Latonia, was on the Switch Monday.

Miss Belle Miles, of Barbourville, is visiting her brother, Rich Miles, this week. MARY ANN.

Misses Lizzie and Emma Morris took dinner with Miss Fannie Campbell Sunday.

Mr. Robert Stanberry, of Fletcher, and Miss Arrie Sparks, of Tuttle, took dinner with J. C. and Cora Stanberry Sunday.

The Children's Day at this place on the second Sunday was one of great success.

We are very glad to see Mr. J. J. Price able to be out again, as he was so ill during Children's Day that couldn't attend services.

J. A. Stanberry and son, Mack, were in Barbourville Friday and

Mr. Henry Tuggle came home with them and stayed until Sunday afternoon. We hope he had a pleasant time.

Misses Fannie and Eliza Campbell, who have been very ill for some time, are very glad to say, are able to be out again.

Miss Rose Donaldson visited her aunt Sunday.

George Wells, of London, visited his brother, Emory, Sunday.

W. A. Donaldson, our clever merchant, and J. A. Stanberry, our mail carrier, and E. C. Burnett, our postmaster, think they have the only jobs. They wouldn't swap places with the President.

Hurray! for the Mountain Advocate, the best paper published in the mountains. MARTHA.

We were so sorry to hear of the death of W. S. Taylor, but we hope his absence from us speaks his congregational joy on the other shore.

Thomas G. Hammons attended a funeral service last Sunday at Mills, and reports a good meeting.

Why not let the new railroad come by way of Sinking creek and to Manchester, where there is coal and timber worth their attention.

Now let's have our telephone line as far as Mills.
